Notes about the Emergency Protection Order

About this order

This is an Emergency Protection Order.
This order states what has been authorised in respect of the child[ren] and when the order will end.
The court can extend this order for up to 7 days but it can only do this once.

Warning

If you are shown this order, you must comply with it. If you do not, you may commit an offence. Read the order now.

What you may do

You may apply to the court at any time or to change the directions
to end the order.

If you would like to ask the court to change the directions, or end the order, you must fill in a form. You can obtain the form from a court office.

If the court has directed that the child[ren] should have a medical, psychiatric or another kind of examination, you may ask the court to allow a doctor of your choice to be at the examination.

What you should do

Go to an attorney-at-law as soon as you can.

Some attorneys-at-law specialise in court proceedings which involve children. You can obtain the address of an attorney -at-law from the telephone directory .

An attorney-at-law will be able to tell you whether you may be eligible to apply for legal aid.
