

CARALL CONFERENCE XXVIII

JULY 2013

GRAND CAYMAN

0332: Chief Justice Anthony Smellie addresses the CARALL conference during the opening ceremony.

0327 Part of the audience of regional and local law librarians attending this morning's opening ceremony for the 28th annual meeting of the Caribbean Association of Law Libraries (CARALL).

0335: A section of the audience of law librarians attending the conference. Grand Court Law Librarian Beverley Speirs is rear right.

0336: Law librarians join Cayman Islands legal and judicial officials following the opening ceremony: from left -- CARALL Keynote speaker Attorney General Samuel Bulgin; Lynette Isacc, CARALL Vice-President (serving with the Attorney General's Chambers in Trinidad and Tobago); Janette Bailey-Powell, Secretary (Supreme Court of Jamaica); Chief Justice Anthony Smellie; Janice Jhinkoo, Treasurer (Industrial Court, Trinidad and Tobago); Beverley Speirs (Cayman Islands Grand Court); Thomas Borkowski, CARALL President; and Kevin McCormac, Court Administrator of the Cayman Islands.

0342 Court Administrator Kevin McCormac in discussion with conference attendees.

0348 Attorney General Samuel Bulgin, second from right, and Chief Magistrate Nova Hall (left) flank a group of law librarians.

0352 Courts Librarian Beverley Speirs (centre) with a group of conference attendees.

0358 Barrister Brett Basdeo (left) share a moment with CARALL President Thomas Borkowski.

0367 A student at the Cayman Islands Law School, left, and a Law School Librarian share a moment during the reception.

0372 Minister of Education Tara Rivers (Centre) in discussion with conference attendees.

